REDMON ELECTED ROAD ENGINEER.

C. F. Redmon, for the past several years supervisor of turnpikes in Bourbon county, was yesterday elected County Engineer of this county under the recent act of the Legislature, at the regular meeting of the Bourbon Fiscal Court. His term of office will expire October 1, 1914, under the terms of his certificate filed with the court. The office carries with it a salary of $1,800 per year.

Judge Denis Dundon presided at the meeting of the court yesterday with the following board of Magistrates present: L. J. Fretwell, E. P. Thompson, R. H. Burris, J. J. Redmon, O. B. Lloyd, B. F. Stipp, John N. Shropshire and G. K. Redmon. Accounts to the amount of $2,283.95 were approved by the court and the sum of $1,431.95 were allowed contractors for work on the turnpikes of the county.

Mr. Redmon filed the following certificate with the court.

This is to certify that C. F. Redmon has successfully passed the examination prepared by the Commissioner of Public Roads, for persons other than civil engineers, making a grade of 75 per cent.

This certificate entitles the holder to be considered by the County Judge of any county in this Commonwealth for appointment as County Road Engineer and expires October 1, 1914. (This does not certify to applicants practical experience.)

ROBERT C. GREEN,
Commissioner of Public Roads.

September, 1913.

After the above certificate was presented the following nomination offered by Judge Dundon was read by the court and duly carried:

PARIS, KY., Oct. 1, 1913.

To the Bourbon Fiscal Court:

By authority invested in me by the Statutes of Kentucky, I hereby nominate C. F. Redmon as County Engineer of Bourbon County.

DENIS DUNDON,
Judge Bourbon County Court.

The salaries of the county officers for the ensuing year was fixed as follows and as heretofore:

County Judge, $1,500 per year; County Attorney, $1,000 per year; County School Superintendent, $1,000 per year; County Engineer, $1,800 per year; Keeper of County Infirmary, $75 per month; Health Officer, $300 per year; Clerk Fiscal Court, $400 per year; Keeper of Work House, $200 per day.

The following physicians were named to attend the pauper practice of the county:

Paris—Drs. F. M. Faries, G. L. Rankin and J. A. Gilkey, $500 equally divided.

Millersburg—C. M. Smith, W. V. Huffman, W. G. Dalley, J. D. Calhoun, $200 divided.

Flat Rock—B. F. McClure and P. L. McClure, $100.

North Middletown—L. R. Henry and Dr. Cook, $150.

Hutchison—Logan Gregg, $100.

Clintonville—S. M. Linville, $100.

Ruddles Mills—French Knox, $100.

County Infirmary—French Knox, $200.

Mr. George M. Davis was elected as keeper of the county work house for the ensuing year.

A franchise presented to the court permitting the purchaser to establish electric line and erect poles for the purpose, on practically all of the principal pikes of the county. Those specified in the franchise were the Maysville turnpike to the Kenney substation, Paris and North Middletown pike from the city limits to the Bourbon line, Winchester pike, from the city limits to the Bourbon line, Paris and Georgetown pike from the city limits to the county line, and the Townsend pike from the limits of the city to the Bourbon line.

The provisions of the franchise are that the purchaser can distribute electric current to the outlying district at rate of fifteen cents per kilowatt hour, minimum charge to be $1. It is probable the franchise which was ordered to be sold on October 11 will be purchased by the Paris Gas & Electric Co with a view of extending its lines to the rural districts. The franchise is for a period of twenty years.

An order was entered granting the Blue Grass Natural Gas Co permission to extend a pipe line from Centerville to North Middletown along the county roads and under the supervision of the County Road Engineer.

County Treasurer S. E. Bedford was instructed to borrow the sum of $5,000 for use in the general fund payable January 1, 1914. After passing a number of minor orders the court took up the resolution passed at a recent meeting requesting B. Woodford, Sr., to institute suit against the stockholders of the defunct Citizens Bank to compel the payment of the value of several shares held by the Garth Fund and it was decided to give the assignee more time for action. The matter will come up again at the meeting of the court on October 11.

"PORTLAND NED" IN ARMS OF LAW.

Notorious Yeggman Who Had Been Trained Through Seven States Is Taken in Baltimore.

CONCEALED IN COUCH BESIDE WIFE AND BABY.

Defied Police and Was Prepared For Battle When Climax Was Reached.

(Baltimore Sun.)

Of all the thrilling experiences Federal officers have had in their war on postoffice burglars and safe blowers none was attended with more hair-breadth escapes than the celebrated round-up and raid which had its climax in Baltimore, where twenty-two of the most desperate yeggmen operating in the East and South were captured, each man being taken at the gun point.

Word had gone forth from Washington that the band of yeggmen operating in the East and South were becoming daily bolder and their post-office safe blowing so frequent that they must be checked at all hazards and the yeggmen brought to justice.

Inspectors Bulla, Hooton and Gregory were the men detailed on the case.

Inspector Hooton, trailed a number of yeggmen and their followers to Mrs. Herr's saloon in Baltimore.

After a long campaign of preparations a number of these men were captured. Most of these were the smaller fry of yeggmen, but the post-office inspectors were especially elated over the capture of Robert L. Shainback, alias "William Johnson," alias "Will," James Sherwood, alias "James Shannon," "Fatty Ghee," Jno. King, alias "James Brennan," alias John B. Stillwell, alias "Pa (Pennsylvania)," Swipes, John Adams, alias "D. C. (District of Columbia) Jack," and Charles Nor, alias "Charley Norway Slim."

The captives were speedily arraigned before United States Commissioner Rogers, and each was held in default of $10,000 bail.

The inspectors elated over their night's work, called on the police to institute raids on the other resorts that had been watched. Detective Bradley led in the invading party on one of the Caroline street cribs, and while only a few shots were fired, nightsticks and blackjacks were freely swung, and it was a badly battered band of burglars that was hauled to the city prison at the conclusion of the hearing before the commissioner.

In the haul John Smith, alias "Emerson Pam," alias "Frisco Slim" (but the original "Frisco Slim"), Frank Burns, alias "Thomas Grady," John Collins, alias "John Warren," William Smith, Edward Fitzpatrick, alias "Burlington Fatty," and James Gallagher, alias "St. Louis Jimmy," were seized. All of this group were taken to La Plata, Md., where three were positively identified as participants in the robbery of the village bank. It was an easy matter to connect the others, together with some of those taken in the earlier raid, with the Mt. Airy band robbery, and, this done, they joined their companions in the Baltimore city jail for safe keeping. Detective Bradley meanwhile had arrested Robert Cassidy, alias "Big Casey," alias "William Rad," after a knock-down-and-drag-out fight.

But one more of the yeggmen's retreats remained to be raided. The detectives on guard had conveyed information to the Postoffice Inspectors which led them to believe that the very men working under the direction of "Ned" and "Connecticut Shorty" were in this dive, and furthermore they had reason to believe that the principals themselves were not far away. The round-up must be made at any cost, for the striking while the iron was hot a dozen desperate roughs and thieves had been seized and those till loitering about the yegginfested city were needed to make the chain of evidence, all but forged, complete.

It was nearly midnight when two police patrols drew up within a block of the saloon in Caroline street which harbored this band of thieves. At a given signal police pounced into the place from the front and rear. At the windows of the houses adjoining on each side which commanded a view of the side and rear yards of the saloon police stood with pistols drawn and under orders to fire on the first man who made a break for the surrounding fence.

After the first volley of shots fired in the saloon men scurried through the side and rear doors to the yard like rats from a scuttled ship. The pistols of the police stationed in overhanging windows barked out their greeting, and when this was accompanied by sharp and decisive command to "stop and throw up your hands!" a dozen men paralyzed with fright, their arms uplifted above their heads, halted in their tracks and stood waiting for the dreaded "pinch."

And it wasn't long deferred. Policemen and detectives came surrying into the yard, and while their retreat from the saloon was covered by fellow-bluecoats at every doorway with drawn pistols, those in the yard sheeked their prisoners and hurried them away to cells, although some of them were removed to a hospital, where they remained until their bullet wounds had healed. When noses were counted and pedigrees taken the police docket was augmented by these names: James Sheffield, John Wilson, Edward Parker, Thomas Brooks, Roy Tinney, William Milan, William Stultz, James Walsh, Eugene W. Martin, alias "Kansas City Red," the latter proprietor of the saloon just raided; Wm. Row and Thomas Hart, alias "Milwaukee Paddy."

A few days following the third saloon raid the police located "Ned" at 2008 Ridgewood avenue, and his capture furnished a fitting climax to the strenuous two weeks the inspectors and detectives had spent in depleting the ranks of yeggs at large in and about Baltimore. The police learned that a man whom they knew was an associate of some of the men just arrested had with his supposed wife moved from 413 North Rose street to 1930 Walbrook avenue. This man they had reason to believe was Morgan ("Portland Ned.") He was found home to the Ridgewood avenue house, which he was seen to enter shortly before 4 o'clock in the morning. Detective Bradley had done the shadowing and, having been told of the desperate type of criminal he had to deal with, he notified the nearest police station and in a short time he was joined by Detective Burns, Sergeants Sehner and Carey and Policeman Joyner. Captain of Detectives Humphrey also was notified and he, too, put in an appearance. Burns rang the door bell and a woman responded. She denied that a man had entered the house. This woman, a Mrs. Adams, then slammed the door in the detective's face. The door was forced and as Burns and Sgt. Zehner made their way into the dining-room they saw a woman lying on a sofa. On her arm rested an infant, Mrs. Adams' baby, and both were covered to their shins with a heavy blanket.

The woman on the sofa was none other than Maud, wife of "Portland Ned," the woman for whom he had more than once attempted murder while seeking to slay men of his ilk upon whom he thought she smiled too sweetly. Commanded to rise, the woman declined and defied the police to touch her. As Sergeant Zehner seized the blanket, to which the woman clung desperately, Detective Burns noted a suspicious move beneath it. At the same time he spied the blue steel muzzle of a .44 revolver peeping from beneath the sofa covering. Maud and the baby were unceremoniously tumbled from the sofa, and there stretched at full length, with a pistol in each hand, lay "Portland Ned."

The police seized the pistol and in a jiffy "Ned" was shackled and taken to police headquarters, where he was held pending the arrival of the post-office inspectors who had so relentlessly trailed him through seven States. Upward of $200 was found in the yeggman's pockets, and there were other indications to show that he had been enjoying flush times to the full. Two days later the police found buried in the cellar of the house Mrs. Adams had furnished for her son, "Joe" Adams, at 2009 Clifton street, two flashlights, a metal box of pistol cartridges and a piece of fuse similar to that employed by yeggmen in blowing safes.

All in all it was a remarkable round-up and the inspectors who inspired and engineered it owe no end of thanks to the police, who made the actual captures in these cases by striking when the iron was hot.

AVOID SEDATIVE COUGH MEDICINES

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia, use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world-wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. WHAT AILS STATE OF KENTUCKY

Traveler Ascertained Facts About One Community

CHANGE IN TAX LAWS NEEDED

Why Are 600,000 of Kentucky's People Living in Other States?—A True Story With a Moral—What Do You Think About These Conditions?

A traveler recently, while waiting to change cars at a little town in South-eastern Kentucky, had a conversation with an intelligent business man of the place and ascertained the following facts:

"What is your population?" he asked.

"About two thousand."

"What is your principal industry?"

"We have none, unless stores count."

"Have you no factories?"

"None except a tombstone maker."

"How is your population employed?"

"Well, we have fifty-two stores, nine hotels and restaurants, two newspapers, one laundry, one photograph gallery and two banks."

"You seem to have good railroad facilities."

"Yes, we have railroads running north, south, east and west; twenty-six passenger trains in and out every day and no end of freight trains."

"What does the surrounding country produce?"

"Coal, timber, clay, stone, corn, wheat, tobacco, fruit and vegetables."

"What becomes of all these?"

"They are shipped to different parts of the country."

"Has your town increased in population?"

"Not much in the past twenty-five years."

"How are your young people employed?"

"They mostly drift away and get work in the cities."

"Has it never occurred to you to start a few factories and keep them at home?"

"Yes, it has been tried, and we at one time had a commercial club, whose aim it was to get some factories here, but they couldn't seem to do anything."

"What were the obstacles?"

"Well, some people were induced to come here and found cheap land, cheap fuel, good shipping facilities, but no labor, and some of the inquisitive ones asked about taxes, etc., and nothing came of it."

"What is the trouble with your taxes?"

"Well, you see, we have the general property tax in Kentucky, and when they were shown the assessors' lists and found they had to pay taxes on about seventy-five different kinds of property, and all at the same rate, they ducked."

"Is this true about the taxes?"

"Well, it is pretty near the facts. The city and county and state and schools all have to be paid, and if a man starts a factory he has to pay on his machinery, his raw material and finished goods; his cash and accounts, and, of course, on his land and buildings, and a good many other things, including his watch and stickpin, and, if he wants to educate his children, he must pay on the books and piano and his horse and buggy and almost everything but his shirt, and the trouble is, he never knows exactly what his taxes will be. If he omits any of the seventy-five things the legislature could think of and the miscellaneous things he must think of himself, there is the revenue agent who gets a commission on anything he can find, and then there is the county equalization board, which scrutinizes his returns and adds what it likes, and then the state board at Frankfort takes a whack at it and generally raises the whole list, and it simply keeps everybody going who has anything to be taxed."

"Why don't you change the tax laws?"

"Well, they put the law relating to revenue and taxation in the state constitution, and it takes about five years to effect a change, and it is hard to get the voters to understand the question. The last legislature passed an amendment and it will be voted on at the November (1913) election, and if it is ratified the change will be made."

"I live in Pennsylvania, and every town in that state as large as yours has a factory of some kind, and many of them several. They employ the young men and women and keep them and the money they earn at home. But here comes my train, and all I can say is, you people should wake up, and if your tax laws are oppressive, change them, and your state will blossom like the rose."

"Well, good-bye, stranger. I intend to vote for the amendment myself, and may be others will do the same. It can't be any worse than the present system, and I surely would like to see some smokestacks looming up in these parts. Farewell."

FROM REPORT OF KENTUCKY TAX REVISION COMMISSION, 1910.

"So long as the state adheres to its present system of taxation fixed by constitutional provisions, it will impose upon its citizens a very serious handicap in the competition with the citizens of other states more favored in their tax laws, and must inevitably lose both desirable population and much needed capital."

CORROBORATION

Of Interest to Paris Readers.

For months Paris citizens have seen in these columns enthusiastic praise of Doan's Kidney Pills by Paris residents. Would these prominent people recommend a remedy that had not proven reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years had elapsed if personal experience had not shown the remedy to be worthy of endorsement? The following statement should carry conviction to the mind of every Paris reader:

Mrs. Ida Huffman, 115 Main street, Paris, Ky., says: "We think Doan's Kidney Pills are just fine. We willingly confirm the endorsement we gave them some time ago. I suffered from pains across the small of my back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I got a supply at Wilson's (now Chas. E. Butler & Co.) drug store and gave them a trial. I was very much pleased with the results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WOUNDED THREE TIMES IS IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

With three bullet wounds in his body, J. P. Wilson, night watchman in the yards of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, is in the W. W. Massie Memorial Hospital, in a serious condition as the result of a shooting affray which occurred Monday night about 11:30 o'clock, in what is known as Judy's Alley.

A Louisville & Nashville switchman is charged with shooting Wilson, but so far no arrest has been made. Facts concerning the affair are very meager. It is alleged the man accused of the crime was in hiding in the alley as Wilson approached and fired upon him.

Three shots were fired in rapid succession, and Wilson, bleeding from his wounds, made his way to Main street, where he was rendered assistance and was later taken to the Massie Memorial Hospital in an automobile.

Thos. Craven, extra policeman at the carnival grounds, was one of the first to reach the scene, and he found Wilson struggling along in his efforts to find assistance. Craven helped him to Main street. According to Craven he saw no one in the vicinity of where the shooting is alleged to have taken place.

Three bullets from a 32-30 special revolver took effect in Wilson's body, one entering the right leg passing entirely through the member, the second passing through the left arm and the third struck him in the neck, passing through the mouth and the tongue. Owing to his condition the wounded man has been unable to talk and to give his version of the affair. It is said there were two witnesses.

It is thought he has a chance for recovery, although the attending physicians declare his condition to be critical. He suffers a great deal and is a part of the time unconscious.

I Want You to See My "Garland"

"It's so good to look at and so much better to cook on," continued Mrs. Smith, "that it makes me proud every time I show my kitchen."

"I wouldn't have believed that just having the ovens elevated at the side—Cabinet Style they call it—would have made my cooking so much easier, but now I'd never go back to that old back-breaking, low-oven stove."

"And the glass oven door, Oh, it's such a pleasure to watch things bake to just the right brown. And besides, this is the only really perfect oven I ever heard of. Everything I bake comes out a beautiful even brown on top, sides, and bottom. I tell you it's a joy!"

"Then too, you see these high legs make it so much easier to sweep under, and the aluminum finish and smooth castings make it so easy to clean, that I can't help being a bit enthusiastic about this stove."

"And you should see Frank smile every time he gets his gas bill. I guess it's true alright that these star-shaped burners and ventilating holes in the oven-bottom save gas."

OF COURSE MRS. SMITH IS ENTHUSIASTIC—THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF OTHER WOMEN WHO ARE JUST AS ENTHUSIASTIC AS SHE IS, AND YOU WILL BE ONE OF THEM JUST AS SOON AS YOU BUY YOUR "GARLAND" CABINET GAS RANGE FROM

FATHER AND TWO SONS FACE SERIOUS CHARGE

In a difficulty which occurred at Hutchison Station Sunday, Sol Keller was cut in the head, while his two sons, June and James Keller, were badly used up, and Chas. Franklin, who interceded in an effort to stop the fight, was badly beaten. Jesse Smith and his two sons, Will and Jess, Jr., are charged with the assault, and the three are out on bond awaiting their examining trial, which will be held Saturday.

The trouble took place Sunday afternoon in the store of Snell Bros., and was the outcome of the elder Smith knocking June Keller from a barrel on which he was sitting. The boy, it is said, was in no way offensive toward Smith and when his father interfered he was knocked down, and Will Smith is alleged to have attacked him with a knife while he was on the ground, inflicting a dangerous wound in the head. Jim Keller then took a hand and for a time there was a general mix-up. When Chas. Franklin attempted to quiet the affair the Smiths attacked him and he was badly beaten.

A warrant was sworn out for Smith and his two boys and they were arrested and brought to this city where they executed bond for their appearance here on to-morrow. Eyewitnesses declare they were the aggressors and had come in an intoxicated condition.

BANKER HAMPTON WEAKENS AND TURNS UP TWO MEN.

Following the yielding of Banker D. B. Hampton, who appeared before the Clark county grand jury Tuesday morning and testified in regard to the election corruption after refusing steadfastly for a week to do so, the grand jury returned two true bills against Rome Martin and Jesse Glover, charging them with vote buying.

Immediately after the return of the indictments, the two defendants appeared before Judge Benton and confessed to the charges preferred in the indictments against them, and were each fined $50 and costs. The fines in each case were paid by Mr. Hampton, pursuant to his statement that he would pay the fines of all incriminated by his answers made Tuesday morning.

JUDGE E. B. JANUARY TAKES STAND AGAINST CRITICISM.

The Lexington Leader of Wednesday contained the following: "In a talk with a Leader representative Judge E. B. January, Police Judge of Paris, Ky., stated that he had been unjustly criticized in the matter of the chastisement of a colored boy, Ben Leer. The Judge states that the Leer boy had been in the Reform School several times, also in the county jail. In the last case, he sent for the boy's father and gave the boy the choice of a whipping or a sentence to jail and the lad decided on the whipping. The Judge further states that the whipping had had a good effect, as the boy has procured a good position and is working steadily.

"Judge January is very much in favor of a city workhouse and farm, as a great number of prisoners are kept idle in the county jail at a big expense, serving out their fines for minor offenses where if the city had a workhouse, these men could soon work out their fines at a great deal less expense to the tax payers, and a workhouse, he thinks, would greatly improve the morals of the city."

CROOKS HAVE TEETH MOUNTED TO USE THEM AS SAWS.

(New York Free Press.)

The other day press dispatches from Boston described how a daring professional thief, George H. Prentiss, used his teeth to cut iron pipes, thus could escape from any jail, prison, penitentiary or reformatory at his own sweet will. It seems that this same Prentiss not only had the power of thus breaking, but recently used his teeth to cut away enough pipe from burglar-proof buildings, such as Boston's fine police stations, and then stole 28 pounds of the iron and lead pipes from his own cell in the East Dedham Street Station.

These burglars, gunmen and second story men use their teeth to cut the pipes at both ends, enter the buildings as they please, and then take the iron away with them to sell for pocket money.

This is not by any means so strange or rare a trick as the press seemed disposed to think it. A prominent dentist of national reputation, who does not care to be quoted, in a private discussion said recently that certain bold and shady characters of the underworld, such as yeggmen, gunmen, burglars and the like, have their teeth filled with gold or platinum when there is nothing wrong with their teeth.

A certain notorious crook, who is now serving a long term in Sing Sing, said he, "had better be wathed with the utmost care. This fellow, whose name I do not care to divulge because of professional ethics, has several teeth filled with gold, and a hard saw edge has been ground into the gold. Briefly, it may be said that his mouth is filled with hard chisels and cold saws, ready to saw his way through steel and iron, soil or barriers of any sort."

"Another criminal now at large, who escaped from a Western penitentiary in some-to-the authorities—mysterious manner, had his teeth filled with platinum, gold and a diamond. He came to my office originally and showed me a newspaper clipping with the account of an actress, whose name now escapes me, who had a tooth filled with a diamond."

"Can that really be done, Doc," he asked with the familiarity common among the rats. Little thinking at the time what he could wish with diamond teeth, I answered: "Yes, if you furnish the diamond."

"Well, you may picture to yourself my surprise when he returned not more than two hours later with a sharply pointed one-carat diamond, worth at least $150, and requested me to crown a good tooth with gold and to firmly set that diamond in it."

"Why, he even picked out the tooth, and I, without a thought of what he intended to do, filled, crowned and set the tooth and the diamond as he desired. One night, long afterward, I was awakened—oh, no, not as you guess, by a burglar that turned out to be my patient—by a telephone call from this very fellow, who had been caught red-handed breaking open the safe of a down-town business house. He had the nerve to ask me to go his bail."

"Well he was not convicted that time, but his record soon became known to the police, and he was sentenced to a long prison term when he was next caught."

"CASCARETS" ALWAYS STRAIGHTEN YOU UP.

When Constipate Headachy, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Breath Bad.

Get a ten-cent box now. You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a ten-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular, and head clear for months. Don't forget the children. They love Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe nor sicken.

100% DIVIDENDS In Fuel Saved Each Winter!

How to get more for your money.

That's the rub.

There are ways and ways to economize. Some do without; some buy inferior articles.

Others make a better use of the money they spend.

And that is the kind of economy we want to talk about.

Did you ever figure out how much your heat cost you?

Do you know that 95 per cent of the ordinary heating stoves utilize only half of the heat that is in the coal?

Do you realize what this wasted half costs you?

Utilize that lost half and you will make a real saving and get more heat in the bargain.

Every stove with numerous air leaking joints wastes more available heat than the stove originally cost. That waste is the gas portion of your coal and the heat that goes up the chimney in the ordinary stove. Save the gas—mix it properly with air—burn it and you develop an immense amount of otherwise wasted heat.

But it requires a stove of special construction. It must be a stove that is scientifically and mechanically perfect. It must be a stove that has no air leaks.

That stove is—

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The stove that absolutely controls your fire.

The stove that burns the gases wasted by other stoves.

The stove in which the fire is never out.

The stove that saves its cost in fuel each winter.

The stove that lets no gas or smoke escape into the room.

The stove that gives you every atom of heat that is in your coal.

In fact, the only stove that is absolutely efficient—perfect in construction—perfect in operation.

We sell it under a broad guarantee to do all these things.

COME IN AND SEE IT. YOU WILL BE DELIGHTED.

THEATRICAL.

The production of a new play by David Belasco is always awaited with a thrill of expectation by the theatre-goers all over the country. The consistent excellence and popularity of all his previous offerings is cause enough for this. "A Good Little Devil," however, which is to have its first production at the Grand Opera House, Cincinnati, the week commencing Monday evening, October 20th, is looked for with a somewhat keener anticipation than the usual yearly offering of Mr. Belasco, in as much as the magnitude of the production only permits presentation in the large cities. Out-of-town patrons ought, therefore, to secure seats by mail order as speedily as possible.

"A Good Little Devil" is a play of international reputation. It is the work of Rosemond Rostand, the great Frenchman, who gave "Cyrano de Bergerac," "Chanticleer," "L'Aiglon" and the other great poetic dramas to the world. One can imagine that as this play grew from the first outline of its plot, until it reached its finished dramatic form, it was read, and commented upon scene by scene and act by act by the master dramatist. This is clearly shown by frequent passages of verse which occur as in Cyrano, and the presence of a poet among the characters. The fantasies of "Chanticleer" are also recalled in the sentient animals and birds which lend a fantastic charm to the outdoor scenes.

The story is one filled with poetry and sentiment, as well as an abundance of comedy, and finally turns out happily, as well regulated fairy tales should. The scenes are laid in old Scotch's garret and cottage, and in Juliet's garden, which undergo magical transformations from time to time under the touch of Queen Mab's fairy wand.

"A Good Little Devil" ran for a long time last season at the Republic Theatre and shows the master touch of Belasco in every line. The English adaptation was made for Mr. Belasco by Austin Strong, who is said to have faithfully presented the poetic spirit and high literature values of the French originals. The cast includes William Morris as the aunt, Ernest Truax as Charles, and Mary Pickford as Juliet. Miss Pickford, who is better known as the "Maude Adams" of the movies, has made the hit of her brilliant career in this charming character. The fact of witnessing "Little Mary" in real life is an opportunity rarely offered.

CHRONIC DYSPEPSIA

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7 Sherman street, Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by all dealers. (adv) (Oct.)

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.
Bring Back its Gloss, Lustre, Charm and Get Rid of Dandruff.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine. It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness, and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to restore falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this. (adv)

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription. Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.

Truck Replaced Three Teams

In eleven months this three-ton Kissel-Kar Truck covered in actual service 4,760 miles at a fuel cost of $1.08 per day. Manned by a driver and one helper, it replaced three teams of horses. The average daily burden was 37 17.20ths tons carried an average load of four tons—one ton overload—but in the entire period named, was laid up only two and one-half hours for repairs.

"We can recommend the Kissel-Kar Truck and assure that it lives up to its guarantee," writes Thomas E. Fleischer, manager of the Sheboygan Lime Works.

Two and one-half hours for repairs, carrying over 37 tons per day is a record worthy of notice. Kissel-Kar Trucks cost little to maintain and are economical to operate because the problem is solved in Kissel-Kar construction.

Note these striking Kissel-Kar features—Simple engine—easy to operate—reserve power—excess capacity—differential lock preventing one drive wheel absorbing all the power on slippery places, and stalling the truck—four speed transmitters geared up—fourth speed permitting high speed when desired without racing engine; 15 to 20 per cent. lower fuel consumption than average trucks—light spring suspension for power plant, heavy spring suspension for load—gauge that weighs load—greatest accessibility—easy control—larger brake drums, and extra powerful brakes—special bodies designed to meet every need.

Kissel-Kar Trucks

1500 lbs.-1-2-3-4 and 5 Tons

In the range of capacity, 1500 lbs. to 5 tons, you can find just the type that fills your requirements—and with the Kissel-Kar Truck goes the Kissel-Kar Service, which is the manufacturer's guarantee of satisfaction.

Kissel-Kar Service means taking off your hands all of the mechanical details. A special service building is maintained in this city for the benefit of Kissel-Kar owners. The Kissel-Kar service is a broad and comprehensive arrangement between manufacturer and owners that cares for the car, maintains efficiency, retards depreciation and minimizes upkeep. This service is a valuable consideration in the purchase of a power wagon. Investigate it.

Ask us to analyze your present horse haulage as compared to motor haulage. The result will be interesting.

Messrs. Reuben and J. W. Letton returned Tuesday from Nevada, Mo., where they have been visiting their brother-in-law, Mr. James Becraft, for about three weeks. "LITTLE WOMEN."

Close acquaintance with the lovable characters of Louisa M. Alcott's never-to-be-forgotten story, "Little Women", will be the privilege of Paris people at the Paris Grand, on Wednesday night, October 8. The play will be presented by William A. Brady exactly as it ran all last year at the Playhouse, in New York.

Sweet, simple, quaint and refreshing is this story of half a century ago, and the play is as charming as the book, bringing very close to those who know and love the story, the old friends from out the covers of the book into that larger, more intimate life of the stage.

How strange—and yet wholly delightful—it will seem to the thousands of "Little Women" readers to see the awkward Jo, the beautiful Meg, the rollicking Amy and the lovable Beth of Miss Alcott's story actually brought to life before the footlights; to hear them speak, rehearse Jo's plays, settle their little family quarrels, and to watch them through the "loving stage," when the romance of Amy and Laurie, of Meg and John Brooks, are lived before an audience.

Mr. Brady has assembled a representative New York company of twelve players, and promises a scenic production accurate and realistic, showing the March home at Concord and the orchard at Plumfield. The play is in four acts and two scenes, and many of the costumes used have been secured from the Alcott family, including Jo's boots, which she got "from a lady who had a friend who knew an actor."

Mr. A. R. Johns, the expert photographer, who came here early in the summer for a few weeks' stay at Norman's studio, will on account of the immense amount of work on hand, be compelled to prolong his stay until after Christmas. Those who desire work done should have their sittings made at once, as the work will be finished in the order they are filed. (16-1t)

FREDERICK A. WALLIS IS SEEKING APPOINTMENT

Mr. Frederick A. Wallis, of this city and New York, who for several terms has been president of the Kentucky Society of New York, will probably be appointed Commissioner of Immigration by President Wilson, according to a news story from New York. Mr. Wallis has the endorsement of the most influential members of Mr. Wilson's cabinet, and it is more than likely that his appointment will be forthcoming at the proper time. Mrs. Wallis has been here for the past month the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Clay, at their home on Pleasant street. She is president of the Kentucky Woman's Club of New York, and was recently elected for a second term to that office. The many Paris friends of Mr. Wallis hope he will be successful in securing the appointment to this most important position.

A SNAKE STORY—BUT TRUE ONE, NEVERTHELESS

The appearance of a large snake at the home of Mr. Sim Levy, on Pleasant street, about two weeks ago has been the source of great consternation among the members of the family ever since. Mrs. Levy discovered the snake, and, becoming frightened, called for some one to assist her in dispatching the reptile.

Mr. J. W. Brown, who was passing, went to her assistance, but his snake-ship had made his escape. Mrs. Levy described the reptile as being about five or six feet long, and since that time constant fear of another invasion has kept the family in a state of uproar.

A few nights ago Mr. Levy went down town to a picture show, and, returning, discovered the snake(?) coiled to an immense height on the front porch. Calling to his wife not to be frightened at any unusual noise, he enlisted the aid of several boys, and the party gathered all the stones possible to carry, and cautiously ventured on the porch for fear of disturbing the slumbers of the reptile.

As a means of putting an end to it in short order Sim secured a stone that weighed in the neighborhood of fifteen pounds, and when within a few feet of the object let go at it with all his strength, while at the same time the enlisted force showered the object with small stones. The noise of the onslaught aroused the whole neighborhood, and when the smoke of the battle cleared away, much to the chagrin of the belligerents, instead of a mutilated, bleeding reptile they found a large mass of cotton, fur and excelsior. It was his little boy's Teddy Bear that had been so valiantly slain(?).

PARIS WATER SUPPLY ALMOST AT AN END.

The question of a water supply is becoming a serious problem in this city at the present time and unless a heavy rain falls within the next week Paris will be practically without enough water for domestic purposes and there will only be a limited amount for fire protection.

No rain of any consequence having fallen in the past two months and owing to the extreme drought, Stoner Creek, from which the water for the city is secured is at the lowest stage since 1881, when the bottom of the stream was visible for miles above the dam. The small pools of water standing in the stream bed, have been trampled in efforts to get all that can be secured within the reach of the pumps of the Paris Water Co. and the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

The latter company began Monday to lay a temporary pipe line from the mouth of the Doyle spring and empty in above the dam. The line was completed Tuesday morning and a pump is now engaged in lifting the supply of water above the dam.

Superintendent Newt, Mitchell, of the Paris Water Co., has notified all consumers to refrain from the unnecessary use of water, and has ordered that the sprinkling of the streets be stopped under penalty of having the entire supply of the city cut off for a time at least.

At the present time there is a sufficient amount to afford fire protection, which is being preserved for an emergency. Mayor J. T. Hinton yesterday notified Superintendent Mitchell that the city would refuse to honor any claims of the water company until they came up to the requirements of their contract. Mr. Mitchell, however, is doing everything in his power to meet the demand made upon the reservoir and has a large force of men above the pumping station trenching the bed of the stream. He has had all of the springs flowing into the streams dynamited, with the hope of securing a stronger flow of water, but with little result.

In less than a mile up-stream the creek can be crossed on the rocks in as many as a dozen places. The condition has now assumed a critical stage and unless rain falls shortly in sufficient quantities to flood the bed of the stream, Paris will be face to face with the most distressing water famine in thirty-two years.

BURLEY SOCIETY TAX SUITS WILL BE COMPROMISED

State Auditor H. M. Bosworth said Tuesday that the back tax suit brought in over a score of counties by former Auditor's Agent John Howard, of Middlesboro, against the Burley pool will be compromised. A special agent will be appointed to make the settlement, but Mr. Bosworth has not yet named the agent.

The suits aggregate many thousands of dollars. Representatives of the pool made overtures for a compromise some time ago, but Auditor Bosworth said, under a rule in his department, the suits were at the disposal of the agents who brought them. Since the resignation of Mr. Howard the Auditor has taken over the direction of the negotiations.

Suits which will aggregate approximately $30,000 were brought in Bourbon county against the Burley Tobacco Society, and a hearing was given the case in Judge Dundon's court several days ago, resulting in it being passed until October 6, on account of the absence of important witnesses.
